

The heatmap displays the distribution of 1000 data points across 10 rows and 7 columns (Monday to Sunday). The color scale ranges from dark purple (low density) to bright yellow (high density). The distribution is highly irregular, with some rows showing high density across all columns and others showing low density. Notable high-density areas (yellow) are seen in the top-left, middle-right, and bottom-right regions.

